

QSITE member services

educators of today, creating tomorrow

QSITE member services provide vital support for educators facing the dynamic challenges and opportunities ICTs bring to education.

QSITE volunteer members develop and manage a variety of member service programs in response to the needs of their colleagues and their profession, including:

- QSITE Events
- QSITE Publications
- QSITE Professional development
- Student participation projects
- Member recognition programs
- Professional affiliations
- Professional advocacy
- QSITE Corporate partnerships

Become a QSITE member today and put the QSITE network and learning communities to work ...for you, your students, your colleagues and your school.

QSITE Events

QSITE members are offered substantial discounts to networking events and workshops, with "free for members" events scheduled throughout the year. The annual QSITE state conference is a key event on the educational calendar drawing international presenters and delegates from all over Queensland. And coming soon! – QSITE Virtual events available at www.qsite.edu.au.

Professional Advocacy

With a commitment to lead ICT education and ICT integration in Queensland, QSITE uses its JCQTA (Joint Council Queensland Teaching Associations) and QSA (Queensland Studies Authority) connections to prepare policy submissions and advocate on behalf of QSITE members to progress the meaningful use of ICTs for all sectors of Queensland education.

Member Recognition Programs

Including:

- Peer recognition in the QSITE Annual Teacher and Leadership Awards,
- Invitations to publicly showcase your ICT integration innovations through 'QSITE Tinkering with Technology' sessions in your local area, or
- Become a mentor, profile your achievements online, or submit an article in a QSITE publication.

QSITE Professional Development

QSITE email communities link educators directly to QSITE's knowledge network for fast problem solving online 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Member discounts are offered at QSITE conferences and partnered ICT PD events across the state. QSITE also invites members to and host QSITE PD sessions in their school or region. Coming soon - post-PD chat room support via www.qsite.edu.au as you put new skills to the test.

QSITE Publications

The QSITE publications and website keep educators in touch with developments in ICT education and ICT integration; QSITE activities; and share the experiences and challenges of leading professionals and institutions. Publications include:

- InSite newsletter – QSITE's monthly e-newsletter,
- QUICK magazine – This hard copy publication features in-depth articles on developments in ICT issues in Queensland education, and
- Australian Educational Computing – the bi-annual Australian Council for Computers in Education (ACCE) journal.

Student Participation Projects

QSITE members receive discounted entry and early access to:

- QSITE Schools Web Challenge,
  - QSITE Student Design Challenge, and
  - GIDGITS (Girls in ICT) Great Ideas Competition.
- Go to www.qsite.edu.au for more details.

Corporate Partnerships

QSITE's collaboration with industry helps inform school ICT management decisions and gives members access to:

- discounts and sample offers on ICT services and products,
- vocational applications of ICT education,
- shared resources that enhance QSITE member services, and
- subsidising QSITE member events through valuable sponsorship.

National and International Professional Affiliations

QSITE membership affords you discounted International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) membership and automatic Australian Council for Computers in Education (ACCE) Associate status.
